Adams County News

VOLUME ... GETTYSBURG, PA., SATURDAY, OCTOBER 30 1909. NUMBER 48

Death's Harvest In Adams County

Large Number of County People Taken by the Hand of Death During the Past Week. Many Prominent Persons. The Funeral.

MISS ANNIE M. JOHNS

Miss Annie M. Johns died about eight o'clock on Wednesday evening at her home on Stevens street from a complication of diseases. She had been ill for some weeks and was aged 30 years.

Miss Johns was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Johns and a member of St. James Lutheran church. She had for several years been employed by Saligman and Bruhn in their tailoring department.

Surviving her are her parents, two brothers and one sister, William H. Johns, of this place, Charles K. Johns, of Williamsport, and Mrs. Mattie B. Howard, of Baltimore.

Funeral services will be held from her late residence at 1.30, D. J. A. Clute officiating. Interment in Evergreen cemetery.

SISTER SAINT ROQUE

Sister Saint Roque died at 10.15 a. m. Wednesday at St. Joseph's Convent, Mothertown, from a complication of diseases, aged 80 years.

Deceased, whose secular name was Miss Catherine Gardner, was a daughter of Andrew Chambers, of Hunterstown. She entered St. Joseph's 70 years ago, remaining until deceased.

Funeral Friday, Oct. 29, at 8 a. m. Services in the Convent Chapel, and interment in the Convent cemetery. Rev. L. Augustine Boehler officiating.

MRS. HARRY SHOOL

Mrs. Mary Small, wife of Lewis Small died at her home in Mothertown at 10 a. m. Wednesday aged 37 y. aged 39 years and 16 months.

She is survived by her husband, two daughters—Mrs. Alice Strasbaugh and Miss Agnes Small, both of Mothertown.

She is also survived by three brothers—William Ackerman, Frederick George and Anthony Ackerman, of Mothertown, and four sisters—Mrs. Matilda Seigfried, of Mothertown, and Mrs. George Grodt, of Littlestown.

Funeral Friday, Oct 29, at 9 a. m. at St. Mary's Catholic Church. Interment in Conewago Chapel cemetery. Rev. L. Aug. Boehler officiating.

MRS. LEWIS FETTROWER

Mrs. Anna Marie Fryslager, wife of Lewis Fryslager, died at her home in Hanover, at 5.15 Monday morning from a complication of diseases, aged 70 years and 23 days.

Deceased was born in Germany, her maiden name being Stone. She was brought to this country as a small child by her parents, who settled in New Chester. She was married about fifty years ago to Lewis Fryslager, son of the late Jesse Fryslager, of Hanover, who survives her.

She is survived by a sister, who resides in Kansas, and a brother, who lives in Washington, D. C.

Funeral Wednesday, Oct. 27, at 2 p. m. Services at the house. Interment in Mt. Olivet cemetery, Rev. G. W. Foss officiating.

ALBTOWN'S BILLMAN

Albertus Billman, of Gatford township, died at 9.45 p. m. Sunday, Oct. 24, from kidney trouble, aged about 70 years.

He is survived by wife, two sons and one daughter. The sons are John Billman, of Hanover; Frank Billman, of Gatford township; the daughter is Mrs. Jesse Strasbaugh, also of Gatford township.

Funeral Wednesday, Oct. 27, at 2 p. m. at Glenwood Chapel. Interment in Conewago Chapel cemetery, Rev. Father Boehler officiating.

MISS EMMA WHERMAN

Miss Emma Wherman, sister of Nicholas Wherman of this place, died on Saturday in Chicago, She was aged 64 years. The body will be brought here Wednesday morning. Funeral services will be held at Wherman at 1.30. Mrs. Emmert Wherman, sister-in-law of the deceased, of this place, was buried only a few days ago.

MISS DEBBIE T. TUDOR

Miss Debbie T. Tudor died at two o'clock on Thursday evening at the home of her brother, Dr. J. W. Tudor, on Springs avenue aged 56 years. She had been ill for a number of months.

Miss Tudor was a daughter of the late Eli and Mrs. Julia Tudor, Sr., of York Springs. She is survived by the following: J. W. Tudor, at this place, and one sister, Mrs. Charles Gardner, of York Springs. She was a member of the Methodist church in York Springs.

The funeral will be held from the home of Dr. Tudor at eleven o'clock Saturday morning and will be private. Interment will be made at Hampton.

MRS. ANNA C. FOX

Mrs. Anna C. Fox, of Menallen, died Thursday morning, at her home, of Bright's Disease. She was aged 66 years, 1 month and 27 days.

Mrs. Fox is survived by one daughter Mrs. John Cashman, of Jacks Mountain.

She is also survived by these sisters, Mrs. J. R. Lasher, Waynesboro; Mrs. Jacob Hoffman, Mechanicsburg.

Funeral in St. Andrew's Catholic church, Saturday 10 a. m. Interment at Priest's graveyard.

SUDDEN DEATH

Daniel Bashline, a well known resident of Mt. Joy township, died in the yard leading to the Hotel Drover, Gettysburg, Monday morning. A few minutes before 7 o'clock he expressed a desire to go to the toilet. Mr. Bashline's sister was found lying in the yard, dead, having been seized by heart disease. The deceased was about 70 years old.

In addition to his son, George L. Bashline, of Mt. Joy township, Mr. Bashline, Mrs. Charles Myers, York, and Mrs. Jacob Bair, Mt. Joy, and one East Berlin. Funeral Friday morning, 10 a. m. Burial in Evergreen cemetery, East Berlin, with services at the house. Rev. Mr. Bell will conduct both the services and the interment under the auspices of Adelphia Lodge, No. 1, I. O. O. F.

MRS. ELLIS HERMAN

Mrs. Ellis Herman died at her home in Straban township on Thursday morning as from o'clock from tuberculosis. She had been ill with them for several years. She was aged 39 years, 8 months and 15 days.

Mrs Herman was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Hoffman, of Hunterstown, short distance below Hunterstown. She is survived by her husband, two children and two children. a son and a daughter. One brother, Cayia Bahn who lives in Hanover.

Funeral Saturday morning at 8.30 at the house. Burial will be made at Salem United Brethren church, of which she was a member.

MRS. DAVID ALLERTON

Mrs. David Allerton, mother of Mrs. Jacob Bream, of Carlisle, died seven days after her home in Binghamton, New York. She was 84 years old. Mrs. Bream was born and for some time.

EARL BEEVER

Earl, the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Beever, of Littlestown, died on Sunday last. The funeral was held Sunday with interment in Evergreen cemetery.

SCHOOL REPORT

Following is a report of York's Normal school for the month of Oct., second month ending October 23, Number of pupils enrolled, Male 74, female 12, total 24. Average attendance during the month, male 8, female 10, total 18. Percentage of attendance during the month, male 97, female 91, total 93 Those who attended the every day were—Gertrude Cress, Lottie Funk, Reuss Deardorf, Stella Hemmerly, Nicholas Wherman.

Special Days Rose, all this thread, Thursday, Oct. 28, 1909. Ribbon 5c, 6 yards for 25c, worth 8c per yard. G. W. Weaver and Son.

CHICKEN THIEF GOES TO PEN

One of Trio Caught on Baltimore Street Several Weeks ago Gets Penitentiary Sentence. Second Pleads Guilty.

Warren Anderson, who was arrested several weeks ago with two other youths, charged with stealing chickens pleaded guilty and was sentenced in Adams County Court to undergo a sentence in the Eastern penitentiary. Under the new indeterminate sentence act he can serve not less than nine months nor more than three years.

Robert Webber, another member of the trio, also pleaded guilty and the Court suspended sentence and put the latter on probation for one year. Thomas Middleton, the third member, refused to plead guilty, claiming that he is innocent He will be tried at the October term of Court.

It will be remembered that the chickens were found in the alley in the rear of the Presbyterian church parsonage and that later they were seen caught on the porch at the rear of the home of S. D. Neely on Baltimore street. It is alleged that they were attempting to carry off a box of velvet when discovered. The latter fell from the

HONOR ROLL OF COUNTY PUPILS

Reports from the Various Public Schools in the County Showing Pupils who Attended Every Day. during Month.

Following is a report of Manmorhara School, Franklin township, J. Calvin Lady, teacher, for month ending Oct. 22. Number enrolled 31, average attendance 27, per cent of attendance 86. Those who attended every day during the month were Jessie Mackley, Viola Strasbaugh, Ruth Mackley, Ralph Strasbaugh, Lewis Keller, Leslie Mickley, Guy Kerlmer, Susie Deardorf, Lloyd Mickley, Jessie Alleman, Beulah Strasbaugh, Hazel Hint, Watty Leatherman, Lula Rush, Reber Miller and Margaret Cluck.

Following is the report of Conewago Hill School, Mountville township, Christian Wiley, teacher, for the month ending Oct. 22. Number enrolled 39, average attendance 34, per cent of attendance 87. Those who attended every day during the month were Ralph Bender, Daniel Bender, Grover Starner, Charles Kautz, George Bender, John Rebuck, Earl James Starner. Marie Kautz was absent one day.

The following is the report of Fairview School, Mt. Joy township, for month ending, Oct 24th, Lee Bliss Shoemaker, teacher. Average attendance during the month 30. Number enrolled 32. Average attendance during month 28. The following attended every day: Mabel Hoffman, Harley John Bennett, Burton Hoagy, Ira Gettinger, Walter Hoagy, Ralph Spangler, Roy Pelts, Roger Hoagy. The following attended every day for a county conference of all the teachers of the county will be held in Gettysburg. At this conference the workers from Harrisburg will explain the Lapham's Industry Movement and organize the leagues for the work in the various districts. The object of this is done to obtain delegates to the conference to be held in Harrisburg, Dec. 30, 31 being one of the seventy cities of the United States in the school wide use of the National Conservation.

IMPROVEMENTS

Has W. A. Martin is putting down a concrete pavement in front of his property on Carlisle street.

Has Harry Bream had a concrete pavement put down in front of his property on York street.

VISITED MR. TROUT'S HOME

Says the Harrisburg Telegraph—Governor Stuart and Mrs. Stuart, the new governor who commanded the Gettysburg battle, visited the home of Gettysburg was a warm friend of what Gilbert Stuart, Mrs. Myers, Miss Dorothy Myers, Miss Mary Stuart, state department. The friendship between Governor Stuart and Mr. Trout was a led of four. General Stuart commanded the cavalry during the battle at the home of Mr. Trout's father-in-law, Mr. Myers, and the two families endeared himself to them by his kindness and courtesies. Harry A. Trout, Mr. Trout's brother, ing General Howard never failed to call upon Mr. Trout.

REVIVAL SERVICES

On next Sabbath evening the annual revival meeting will begin at Salem United Brethren church. The pastor will preach on each night except Monday evening. On Tuesday evening Rev. W. H. Hartzell, of Mt. Pleasant holding the First Quarterly Conference of the Littlestown charge. Rev. R. R. Hoden, of Wernersville will preach Monday evening. Each night after the singing and preach also Now of the Gospels 1, 2, 3, and 4, combined, will be the song book used. The invitation to attend these revival services is heartily fraternal and extended to the public.

IMPROVEMENTS

Following is a report of Mummasburg School, Franklin township, J. Calvin Lady, teacher, for month ending Oct. 22. Number enrolled 31, average attendance 27, per cent of attendance 86. Those who attended every day during the month were: Jessie Mackley, Viola Strasbaugh, Ruth Mackley, Ralph Strasbaugh, Lewis Keller, Leslie Mickley, Guy Kerlmer, Susie Deardorf, Lloyd Mickley, Jessie Alleman, Beulah Strasbaugh, Hazel Hint, Watty Leatherman, Lula Rush, Reber Miller and Margaret Cluck.

Following is the report of Conewago Hill School, Mountville township, Christian Wiley, teacher, for the month ending Oct. 22. Number enrolled 39, average attendance 34, per cent of attendance 87. Those who attended every day during the month were Ralph Bender, Daniel Bender, Grover Starner, Charles Kautz, George Bender, John Rebuck, Earl James Starner. Marie Kautz was absent one day.

The following is the report of Fairview School, Mt. Joy township, for month ending, Oct 24th, Lee Bliss Shoemaker, teacher. Average attendance during the month 30. Number enrolled 32. Average attendance during month 28. The following attended every day during the month: Mabel Hoffman, Harley John Bennett, Burton Hoagy, Ira Gettinger, Walter Hoagy, Ralph Spangler, Roy Pelts, Roger Hoagy. The following attended every day for a county conference of all the teachers of the county will be held in Gettysburg. At this conference the workers from Harrisburg will explain the Lapham's Industry Movement and organize the leagues for the work in the various districts. The object of this is done to obtain delegates to the conference to be held in Harrisburg, Dec. 30, 31 being one of the seventy cities of the United States in the school wide use of the National Conservation.

IMPROVEMENTS

Has W. A. Martin is putting down a concrete pavement in front of his property street home which is quite an improvement on the old way. The latter way of getting around a corner. The curb is made with a radius of 15 feet and the inside curve of the pavement has a radius of 2 feet. When completed with grass plots it will not only be of more convenience but also a convenience for the people living in the vicinity and undoubtedly will be a convenience for vehicles of all kinds.

James Weimer had a be a concrete pavement made at his property on York street.

WHAT PEOPLE LIVING ON THE ROUTES STUDY

Gettysburg Rural Route Happenings

What the People living on the Routes Gettysburg from Gettysburg are Doing. Those who are Visiting and Entertaining Friends.

Samuel Spangler, of route 5, is putting up a galvanized iron roof on his house to protect it against sparks from passing trains.

Frank Schriver, of route 4, had a load of wood on route 5.

J Walter Lear of route 3, is spraining his horses.

Mrs F. H. Stoner and daughter, Miss Miss Anna Stoner, and son-in-law daughter, Miss Jennie, Mrs. James Crouse and daughter, Miss Maud, all of route 5, spent Thursday in Gettysburg shopping and visiting friends.

Frank Shindledecker, of Fairfield, and Miss Bruce Troxell, of route 5, were married in Hagerstown last week.

J. W. Maring, of route 13, had a field of fine acres in corn from which he hauled 107 loads of corn.

Mrs. William Wolfert, of route 13, spent last week with Mrs. John Miller, on route 5, and Mrs. Wolfert, prior to that with Miss Pamela McLaughlin.

Contractor George Brickley of Fairfield route 5, and contractor J. C. H. Wagner, of route 15, have been engaged in improving properties on route 5.

P. H. Stoner, of route 5, is recovering from a severe attack of fever which confined him to the house for several days.

Mrs. John Newhaker, of route 13, was a Gettysburg visitor on Friday.

George Beamer, of route 5 was seriously kicked on the leg by a colt he is hogging to L. C. Funk. The colt got away and is still at large

Ernest Jacobs, of route 8, is in a critical condition.

Edward Wolfert, of route 8, shot a fine stray mousing cat last week.

Mrs Elizabeth Eckert, of route 8 is visiting friends in York and Hanover.

Miss Vinnie Eisbrook, of route 8 has returned home after spending some time with friends in Littlestown and Hanover.

Walter G Snyder, of route 12, had a fine grain from cattle this week. He has a number of fine steers and lots of corn.

P. H. Bigham of route 4 made a recent call at Greenmount.

P. H. Stoner and family spent last Sunday with Mrs. Stoner's parents, on route 5.

Miss Ada Dagen, of route 8 Bigler-ville, is spending some time at the home of Mrs. Ephraim Herr, on route 8.

Mrs. Lulu Eyler and daughter, of route 5, spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ephraim Herr, on route 8.

John W. Feiler, of route 8, sustains a business trip to Gettysburg on Wednesday.

Mrs. John Will, of route 8, spent Thursday at the home of Mrs. P. H. Stoner.

William Harman has moved to the tenant house of Miss Warren on route 8.

John F. Eyler, of route 8, is suffering from a wound in his hand caused by a wire. Blood poisoning is feared.

Mr. and Mrs. Eli Palmer, of route 10, spent Sunday at the home of C. G. Hartland, and wife on route 8.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Orndorff, of route 8, are busily engaged husking corn at the home of Cleveland Hartland.

Mrs. Lydia Hollman, of route 8, was given a birthday post card shower on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Keefer, of New Oxford, are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Kemper, of route 8.

H. P. Bigham and daughter, Miss Jessie, and J. A. Felty, all of route 8, spent Wednesday in town.

Mrs. William Kinak, of Mechanicstown, is spending some time at the home of L. A. Noel, of route 10.

C. E. Collins and family, Fairfield, of route 1, are among the first residents in the county to husk.

George's Willie's straw stack, on route 4, fell over on Wednesday night.

Miss Madge Cayer, of route 4, and B. K. Smith, of the same route, were married in Hagerstown last week, by the week.

Clarence L. Scott, of route 4, has attached a new kitchen building at the rear of his home.

John Crouse, of route 7, was a recent caller at this office and has added his name to our subscription list.

Mr. C. Weikert, of route 1, is conducting very successfully the Adams County Creamery, at Orrtanna, in Jacob Top Chair Works.

Harry Spahr, of route 12, has been taking photographs for a number of days here in his vicinity and is giving excellent satisfaction.

The bridge over the stream at the Lady Lebanon Valley road, on the old Chambersburg road, has been completed and the road is now open on the abutments.

The new watering trough has been built at the Dorcas Dentrich farm on route 4, and is a fine one. It is equipped with constantly running water for the benefit of the public.

Otis A. Fust, of route 8, is suffering with a very bad cold.

A. Kunkle and wife, of route 5, have returned home after an extended trip to Canada.

CAPTURED COON AND DOG.

Bryanola, Oct. 26—Jere Cornelius, a well known farmer of this neighborhood, secured John McFate, a popular scenic artist of Pennsylvania, Maryland and Kansas. Shower and Pitzer spent last week hunting with their hounds. One lucky coon, weighing four and a half pounds was captured and a hoot owl weighing eleven pounds.

The following named visitors was claimed in the Gettysburg post offices last week.

Mr. George Copenhaver, Mrs. Harrison Flyn, Mr. Frank B. Hynes, Miss Florence Hoar, Mr. Jacob Hoffman, Miss Mae Stighter.

Call for the above will please state that they were advertised.

W. H. H. M.

HELD UP AT MUMMA'

Edward Herin, a son of Mr. and Mrs. William Herin, of Mt Joy township, cut a little less last Saturday night than he intended to. He was merry opposite St. Vincent's Church some time after midnight, he was stopped by a stranger. A struggle ensued and the stranger drew a knife, the freeing himself and escaped to his home without being injured in any manner. It was also reported he was mentally intoxicated.

IMPROVEMENTS

York Springs reports a marked improvement in that town through the laying of sewerage pipes.

Huntington township has begun the construction of a number of stone arch small streams, which give general satisfaction when completed.

IN THE GROTTO

By M. QUAD.

Everyone, the U. was used likewise

It took place quite suddenly, but there. It was at a summer resort. Things always take place quite suddenly at those places to which the people go. They observed each other at the dinner table, they noticed nothing in the same boat in the afternoon in the evening, they found themselves side by side on the veranda listening to the same music, and then they went for a walk. Somehow they intended themselves to each other, and then Fate held them in the bonds of love.

Minnie A. was the daughter of a banker of last name. Harry Wise, banker, was the father of Harry, who was a fine young gambler. While this was a case of love at first sight neither of the principals told the other so at the time, so-and-so meeting. They spoke of wines, cigars and the weather, they referred to music and the drama; they spoke of London, Paris and other foreign capitals. It would have been in bad taste for the young woman to even hint that she was an heiress or for the young man to give a list of the stocks and bonds he had in a safety vault. Oh, no. That would not enter into their heads for the least. It was the romantic stage, perhaps.

The young man was in time introduced to the young woman. Even in this case meant neither. It was days after the first meeting. It was a case of a hostile friend coming at a moment's notice. He did. The chaperon was a woman at whose home he was a guest, a widow, and, while not severe, she was a woman of the world.

Two weeks passed like a day. They always pass swiftly at summer resorts. If they didn't the landlords couldn't prevent their bills rising. During the second week it became patent to many guests that the couple who have under discussion were very much in love and that no engagement was impelling on the brink. No one threw cold water on a cold bit proceedings, however. Even the chaperon seemed to favor it. Therefore things were going like a June day when Fate made up her mind to take a hand. Fate always gets gruesome in the end. Sometimes it gets comical. Some years ago double grosses, like two thoroughbreds and others only single. If a loving couple make up mind to spend the afternoon alone they ought pre-empt out of the single grosses and keep them against all comers until an hour after midnight. If all the other grosses were found occupied the double pass rang in "Just Jay." They were invited to the mess well, but they were intended to carry second instead of deadheading in.

On this certain evening, when the moon was round and full and yellow and soft and when the hotel band was trying to wake into life some history our people were a minute late in leaving the dining room and had to wait half of a double gratis. The other side was occupied by a party who had no desire to themselves. Dave said to Minnie A. that he would like to walk. The people had got up to the left and the other side of the house were occupied by a man and a woman. It was a comfortable voice the man started off by saying:

"So you are sure it's the same pair?" said. I cannot be mistaken." replied the woman.

"You saw them at Atlantic City in April?"

"Yes."

"And then at a hotel in New York?"

"As I told you, and a week later I passed their hotel still in both places I knew that the proprietor had informed me of two or three guests at the hotel in Atlantic city and were also leaving there unpaid. I have the strongest suspicion that the girl is a divorced wife and is hotel, and the man is a married man. He is the one who is over on that side of the room. I have been to send to him, and to night I heard her say something about striking some one for a thou and dollars. She must have meant to slip. Yes, I'm sure they are a couple of sharpers."

"And what about the fellow?"

"What I hope I put there, and she got it from another lady's maid here as she took them for her to be as the charity of an uncle and hasn't got a penny—indeed, I'm sure, though he is putting up the big gest kind of a front."

"But it's not our affair," said the man.

"But it is in a way. Such dealers might be aware of the women will no doubt jump their bound till here."

"Well, let 'em jump. Our husband must look out for himself. And I'll be obliged to say nothing to other people Come on, he's take a stroll."

While the above conversation had been going on, Dave and Minnie A. had been in the other side of the house and were very bored. They breathed, but they breathed softly. They had their heads, but they didn't squeeze. Neither was ready to say anything to other people dead to the world. The other half of the grotto had been vacated ten minutes or more before Miss Minnie suddenly revived and stood up. The young man followed suit. She shook herself. He did the same. Then, without a word, a tear, a blessing, a last kiss, she headed for the hotel. He walked for a minute and then took up her trail, but not to rear her down. Guests who looked for any of the time were not to be seen. That's the way with all summer resorts. They are quickly all summer resorts. They are quickly made, and only them, in the time when.

THE PREACHERS #9.

Oh, say, can you hear a preacher groan,
Groan,
Then say they have nine never tried a
Tried?
Till out pain, and soon if we
Today 8, blessed be

The off, the beef and it
Certainly more it—
And, with out, pain and
Double to be made to stow or not take

Let the preachers' trust is a different thing.

He can in a new 1 instructing the, Sunday-school, and the Bible class, also inviting men but ever preaching on Sunday.

Wire, even the names, preachers' combine, and they can't get out.

Let us call it the still wiser and bolder.

NEW FARM FEATURE

The Nixon Valley state's winter institute will be held in the Nixon Stock Farming. It will run several days and as in the past will be in the Horse Course at Nodon Agricultural Society. Dr. Shepard is the Farm," which appeared in this paper some months ago. We would suggest that our readers clip out the article and keep them until all are published.

Visit to Gettysburg

Alex. P. Boegher and Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Myers, of Philadelphia, D. C., and Mrs. C. E. F. Brewer, of Philadelphia, spent several days in Gettysburg recently. Mr. Boegher who is the nephew of Mrs. Brewer, is planning a business in Gettysburg many years ago.

It is annually the tobby cats that we must often found kicking around up our ear. Then when we see the poorer sections and of least account.

While it is true that a tract of land as an account and should be cultivated a big but, it is nevertheless worth remembering that it is the man who has the trees and results to trees that is free from worms if a piece of land can be given the name of the on hand. Then when the trees are ready to be time when the wheat is ripe. These drops are very many, and we never saw a tree stripped when the apples are ripe and ready to be picked. Another very desirable size the bugs only be kept in check by constant and all-the-year spraying and twice to prevent birds injuring themselves. No person can be too careful in this respect, as they cause fighting, and birds cause the loss of many trees who have only 5 inches around top cuttin.

To a few feet right and to the pilin. two-eighth to north side, one six-inch hole bored in each corner and also have a hole in partition and a valve in each hole.

Then the whole thing is ready for according to wind to avoid drafts.

The ventilators are placed in the side of the pult, and have slide buttons for regulation.

A fly sticit feet high and 16 by 16 feet for the body birds, with wire boards up sixty slides.

Then you have a nice house floor and renew the four inches of sand in it every two months.

FEATHERS AND EGGSHELLS.

Shooting chicken-like with a pocket-knife is a dangerous proceeding. A device inside with a prongs. Inserting hand and the business-like thing, that this powder gun is most too nice.

Many of the birds that are destroyed by the mosquito. We here to say that we have not found a chicken that sure owns a chicken these a mosquito. Some of the birds that spread the disease among them feed on the mosquito. Among the birds that destroy the mosquito are the "skeeter" bare disappointed.

Now, can the sparrow, some "they" say, give us suits? None. Not sold a sparrow suit. Then why should they have them? Why? You don't know? You don't know? Then, then, then, that's all right, yes, after all.

The "disembodied" egg shown in the cities by the proprietors of poultry farms and commission men who say that are tired of the trickery of adulteration. Some of the commission men people shown that the public is tired of the "cheap" eggs that are sold to them by city merchants at enormous prices.

The idea that a male bird is past middle-life because he does not crow at the spring of an infantile brain. We was a bird that was past middle age and he was teen that began the feast of crows about 3 a. m.

Among great food fanciers are those who think that a young fowl is best when with cold and drive feathers into a hard's flesh to see whether the points may their tribe quickly decease.

The man who would not consume a "egg" for starving ill to a setting of eggs is a man who is not to be trusted with a dollar. Many of the scientific people believe in this and we have been the best family trade. Hen fruit bought a crate of eggs, washed them and after their sale found she had a profit of $2.25. The new owner got $2.00 a year or eggs shipped to her from a commission merchant.

A GOOD DOUBLE LOFT

A pen for right floor and slides, the latter being covered with cloth according to climate.

The house must have three feet entry on north, with screen and solid door on outside and all the cracks of spring and nests to prevent birds entering. The floor must be made tight to prevent birds injuring themselves. No person can be too careful in this respect, as they cause fighting, and birds cause the loss of many trees who have only 5 inches around top cuttin.

To a few feet right and to the pilin. two-eighth to north side, one six-inch hole bored in each corner and also have a hole in partition and a valve in each hole.

Then the whole thing is ready for according to wind to avoid drafts.

The ventilators are placed in the side of the pult, and have slide buttons for regulation.

A fly sticit feet high and 16 by 16 feet for the body birds, with wire boards up sixty slides.

Then you have a nice house floor and renew the four inches of sand in it every two months.

FEATHERS AND EGGSHELLS.

Shooting chicken-like with a pocket-knife is a dangerous proceeding. A device inside with a prongs. Inserting hand and the business-like thing, that this powder gun is most too nice.

Many of the birds that are destroyed by the mosquito. We here to say that we have not found a chicken these a mosquito. Some of the birds that spread the disease among them feed on the mosquito. Among the birds that destroy the mosquito are the "skeeter" bare disappointed.

Now, can the sparrow, some "they" say, give us suits? None. Not sold a sparrow suit. Then why should they have them? Why? You don't know? You don't know? Then, then, then, that's all right, yes, after all.

The "disembodied" egg shown in the cities by the proprietors of poultry farms and commission men who say that are tired of the trickery of adulteration. Some of the commission men people shown that the public is tired of the "cheap" eggs that are sold to them by city merchants at enormous prices.

The idea that a male bird is past middle-life because he does not crow at the spring of an infantile brain. We was a bird that was past middle age and he was teen that began the feast of crows about 3 a. m.

Among great food fanciers are those who think that a young fowl is best when with cold and drive feathers into a hard's flesh to see whether the points may their tribe quickly decease.

The man who would not consume a "egg" for starving ill to a setting of eggs is a man who is not to be trusted with a dollar. Many of the scientific people believe in this and we have been the best family trade. Hen fruit bought a crate of eggs, washed them and after their sale found she had a profit of $2.25. The new owner got $2.00 a year or eggs shipped to her from a commission merchant.

FORTUNE FOR HOME

The will of Mrs. Sarah Todd, who died at Hanover recently, bequeaths a large sum to charity.

By provisions of the will a home for aged women will be established in Hanover, and a number of friends will be provided for. The will also provides for the erection of a monument to the memory of the testatrix.

SPORTSMEN ARE ACTIVE

Gettysburg Trench 5, of the United Sportsmen of Pennsylvania are taking steps to organize hunting and fishing clubs in use on this county.

Among the things proposed is the organization of a game club, which will be conducted every spring in order to keep up the supply which it is hoped will be in force by the time of the opening of the season. Another matter at the club meet in soon will be the fish and law. Of course "fishing" is nothing, a summary of the days. Fish and game protectors will soon be appointed in this section last year and fishing in the streams of this county was prohibited by law much improved for the season.

The Gilligan rabbit hunting which has been carried on here for the past two years has been very successful in their efforts to get a state game warden here. Many of the rattlesnake have been killed and the work of the league is not being settled in such until the season opens. The State Department has been notified of this and has promised to send a warden here.

Sunday hunting is also carried on to a small extent in this section of the county and the members of the United Sportsmen are taking vigorous steps to put a stop to this practice.

Several other violations of the law are also reported and it is hoped that the guilty parties may not have to wait long before they will be arrested. We have been requested not to state what the offenses are.

ALUMNI MEETING

The Alumni Association, of the Wolfes Loyal Temperance League, will meet in the hall in the Fahnestock Building, Fridley evening, 8 o'clock.

The meeting opened with singing of the L. T. L. State song. Rose Underwood presided over the last meeting was attended to and twelve new business was transacted. officers who were elected were: President, Pitt Bream; Secretary, Bertha Hagen; Treasurer, Ruth Bream.

The literary program was then given. Music, Mrs. C. E. Hamilton; obi, recitation, Blanche Hagen. Solo, Mrs. C. E. Hamilton. "Johnny's History Lesson;" recitation, Miss Winkler; music, Mrs. C. E. Hamilton, ch. "Some things we laugh at," read by Alice Bluebaugh; recitation, Ruth Rice singing by children, "I know a little boy." Recitation, Mrs. Ida Bream; a contest, entitled "Courtship in the Vegetable Kingdom," and by other entertainments.

The meeting adjourned to meet Nov. 12 at the home of Bertha Hedges.

PREPARING FOR GAME

Says the Carlisle correspondent of the Harrisburg Telegraph:

Governor Stuart will come to Carlisle with a lemon hunt and one subject on conservation. Thousands of men from colleges will pursue the streets of Carlisle in the interests of colleges in spirit such as has never before been seen in this community. Extra police forces are expected to flood the business section of the town. Preparations for a lemon made with the Cumberland Valley by railroad whereby several of their trains will stop and discharge passengers in front of the Carlisle House.

The hitchmen eleven that fell is captained by their star quarterback, Samuel Pierce. The team is playing in in lester shape than ever, and to go as being quite a scrub the prospect admission. Gettysburg is led by Pierce, whose work has been such a wonderful game at mid back.

HALLOWE'EN PARTY

A very pleasant Hallowe'en party was held at the home of Peter Culp on Friday evening in honor of his grand children, Miriam Williams, Harry John, Ruth and Raymond Annon. Those present were: Miriam Bream, Ruth Bream, Ethel Culp, May and Stella Hoffa, Emma Saxe, Ruth Hamer, Ruth Bauman, Mary, Grace and Sonnie Rodhall, Marie Stock, Harriet Miller, Helen Kaufman, Ruth Sauer and Hannah Minnich, Clyde Bream, Howard Diehl, George Stehs, Harry Gardner, Wilbur Deaven, Paul Williams, William Troxel and Joseph Rothhaft. The evening was spent in playing games and music. After this all were invited to the dining room where the table was beautifully laden with good things and the dining room was prettily decorated with Hallowe'en lanterns to suit the occasion.

A guest.

Ohio driving and work horses. There are some good ones for this load.

H. W. PARR,
HANOVER, PA.

Sewing Machines

Singer, Wheeler & Wilson sold cheaper than ever before. All repairing guaranteed.

B. D. SNYDER,
127 Hanover street, Gettysburg, Pa.

FARM FOR SALE

Situated in Straban township, on the Hanover road, one mile from Gettysburg, containing 125 acres, more or less. Apply at the premises, or of E. W. Kepp, Gettysburg, or to E. M. Ziegler, 1427 Chestnut St., Philadelphia.

PUBLIC SALE

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 3, Liberty township, public sale of personal property and 1 mile north of Fairfield, at 10 o'clock, the following: 2 horses, 1 mare, 2 years old; 1 cow coming 3 years old; 1 cow coming 2 years old; 1 heifer coming 2 years old; 1 heifer coming 1 year old; 2 fine sows, each coming 2 years old; 1 sow coming 1 year old; 1 boar coming 1 year old; 20 shoats, weighing about 100 pounds each; 1 Deering binder, 7 feet cut; 1 Deering mower, 5 feet cut; 1 Deering hay rake; 1 Deering manure spreader; 1 Deering corn planter; 1 Deering corn harvester; 1 Deering disc harrow; 1 Deering spring tooth harrow; 1 Deering corn sheller; 1 Deering fodder shredder; 1 Deering cutting box; 1 Deering hay tedder; 1 Deering grain drill

Home Course In Live Stock Farming

I.—Fences.

By C. V. GREGORY,
Author of "Home Course in Modern Agriculture," "Making Money on the Farm," Etc.

Copyright, 1910, by American Press Association.

ONE of the most important parts of the equipment for the live stock farming is a good system of fences. Without a consequently scant and endless trouble. In the second place, a wire cattle fence will not only be more effective than a rough one for the purpose, but it will cost less in the long run. Fences when it is well fitted spread it out in a thin layer and spread the required amount of gravel over it. Mix the whole mass well and roll it over several times.

The top of the molds should be pressed gently soft to keep the gravel from sticking. Spread about one and one-half inches of concrete over the bottom and tamp it well. Next stick corner log, a steel wire lengthwise of the post. These reinforcing wire should be fairly taut, but will not need to be galvanized, as the concrete will keep them from rusting. They should be looped at the end to prevent slipping. Put the concrete up to within an inch of the top of the mold, tamp again and put in two more reinforcing wires. Fill the mold to the top, tamp and round off the upper corners. Long staples with the points bent at right angles to them from putting out should be stuck into the center of the fence where the wires are to be fastened. After the posts are set the wires can be fastened to these staples by a small piece of soft wire twisted around them.

After the cement has partially set it should be moistened well to keep it from drying out too rapidly. The posts should not be put in place for one day for a week, when they may be taken down to molds and stored away to make used to cure. It takes sixty days for a cement post to cure properly, and it should not be set before that time. In the meantime the post should be kept moist by occasional sprinklings. The cost of material for cement posts the size mens thread and seven feet long is not more than 25 cents a post, not counting the labor. When cured in this way they will last practically forever.

The method of treating wooden fence posts to prevent decay is very simple and inexpensive. Any kind of post is suitable for the work. The ends recommended, the poorer soft wood posts last as long as the longer and more expensively cut. The operations needed consists of two small saw cuts, notice, one of which is arranged so that a fire can be built under it. Both cuts are filled from within full of creosote, which can be bought for the barrel at comparatively little. The creosote in one of these cuts is heated almost to boiling, and the posts, which must be well seasoned, are allowed to lie in it for almost six hours. Usually only the part which is to be put in the ground need be treated.

C. V. GREGORY

After remaining in the hot creosote for six hours the posts are taken out and immediately placed in the cold creosote. The sudden reduction of temperature causes the steam in the pores of the wood to condense, making a partial vacuum, and the air pressure drives the creosote into all parts of the post. This treatment costs only about 10 cents a post. The treated posts will last twenty years or longer, and should be placed in untreated holes.

In putting up a permanent woven wire fence great care must be taken to see that the posts are properly fastened. Fig. 1 shows a very effective way of making a solid corner. The corner post should be considerably larger than the others, and the hole in which it is to be placed should be dug deep enough for the big flat piece of brick about three feet long to be entirely covered when the corner piece at right angles to the first. Fill in dirt up to the top and tramp it solid. Then roll in a number of large stones and fill in the hole with wire will, tamping it well all the time. The brick will be entirely concealed, will not give much under any strain, and will be found to be a very easy way to set a corner. Where a single post is to be used, though a little more care is necessary, it will be found very satisfactory.

The material selected should be strongly woven and made of good sized posts. Wire fences are best when supported by stout wires run lengthwise from post to post. Such fences are not only more effective, but they also lend themselves readily to the longitudinal strands, as their inter-meshing spaces are all in place. Both the woven and the barbed wire fences are best supported when that is galvanized after weaving. As the wire is drawn in the galvanizing it is tightened with the galvanizing material, and when stretched on the fence it will not sag with any degree as it does if ungalvanized after weaving. In the latter case the galvanizing, which is applied when the wire is cold, will crack and peel off.

It is of great importance to have the fence properly stretched. Those who use stretchers will see at once where wire is tightly enough. Where a large gate is to be put in or at a time a permanent fence is to be erected, it will pay to set a temporary post a little way back from the corner to which the fence may be attached and wrapped around the corner post and fastened in several places, as the strong brace in very heavy. If there are more than twenty rods in a single line it will be necessary to put in a brace post, making a section not more than twenty rods long. Such a brace post is shown in fig. 2.

FIG. 2.—A GOOD PAIR GATE.

Sometimes a gate is to be put in the posts will have to be bored solidly. A good way to do this is to get the posts that will extend about twelve inches above the fence and saw away the tops with a strong saw. This method of boring cannot be used with cedar posts, as they will not stand such hard usage.

Sometimes a gate is to be put in the posts will have to be bored solidly. A good way to do this is to get the posts that will extend about twelve inches above the fence and saw away the tops with a strong saw. This method of boring cannot be used with cedar posts, as they will not stand such hard usage.

Wherever a gate is to be put in the posts will have to be bored solidly. A good way to do this is to get the posts that will extend about twelve inches above the fence and saw away the tops with a strong saw. This method of boring cannot be used with cedar posts, as they will not stand such hard usage.

SHOCKED BY ELECTRICITY

Henry Dunlough Sustains Severe Shock while Walking in the Point of The Gettysburg Times Fatally Recovered

Henry Dunlough, fireman of the Gettysburg Electric Railway Company, received a severe electrical shock while on duty at the office on Carlisle street, Thursday morning, from which he died at 1:30 o'clock this afternoon.

Mr. Dunlough had gone to the large electrical motor which drives the machinery in the boiler room, to oil the machinery and took hold of the switch to throw the power off. Instead he turned Mr. Dunlough does not know how he touched it correctly, stepped on the linoleum towards the fodder which is the operating. He recovered himself sufficiently to keep from falling on that, however, and after getting to a chair slowly recovered from the shock.

Fortunately Mr. Dunlough had left the machine as soon as he felt the shock and got only a small portion of the electricity. For several hours after he received the full shock he was not able to go to work. Recently he was in his office. It supposed he was improving.

HEAVY TRADE

So heavy has been the Fall trade at the Eagle Hotel that it is found necessary to add sufficient to twenty more rooms. Allen Plank has charge of the work. The space has been devoted to under with the exception of National Guard years and the trade during the past week has been very near exceptional. The automobile business is said to be largely responsible for the big Fall turn-out business. The Governor Hunter, of Indiana, has been up during the past few days at the Eagle.

TRAITSER OF PRIESTS

Followers, the spy-servant of Rev. Germanus Kolb, Franciscan priest of Conewago Chapel, to succeed the late Rev. Eugene Hoffbrunner, and the transfer of Rev. H. A. Longue, assistant at St. Joseph's Church, Baltimore, to Rev. Bishop Shanahan has sent Rev. J. L. Hinkle, formerly assistant at the Chapel, to succeed Rev. Rev. Longe in Hanover. Rev. I. A. Hinkle has also been transferred from Thomasville to Middletown, exchanging with Rev. J. L. Hinkle, who comes from that place to Bonneauville.

O. S. Norris, a student in the Preparatory Department of College, fell and broke his shoulder blade while playing ball on the campus Friday. He was taken in the York Hospital Saturday.

NEW AUTO LAW TO HELP GETTYSBURG

Persons Living in Other States Bordering Pennsylvania Can Spend Ten Days here without Paying License

Hunting, fishing, motoring all in the day's sport. Here's a law that automobile art which gives motorists ten days in which to hunt in the state without a license. The motor boat law is also a good one.

Under the new law, which goes into effect on June 1, 1911, persons living in other states bordering Pennsylvania can spend ten days here without paying a license. The law is also a good one.

Home Course In Live Stock Farming

II.—Windbreaks and Buildings.

By C. V. GREGORY,
Author of "Home Course in Modern Agriculture," "Making Money on the Farm," Etc.

Copyright, 1910, by American Press Association.

IN most parts of the country it is necessary to provide some sort of shelter for the stock during a considerable portion of the year. Good buildings are expensive, and it is not necessary to have as many in this line connected as it should be. By having a shelter in the form of a windbreak, every animal thing is put up may be made to endure to that plan, and the final results will be much better than if the work had been gone at in a thinkment manner.

There is usually a rise of ground somewhere along the road that makes a good building site. Sometimes a slight is very important, as the posts will be much more easily set in the ground if they are placed on a hillside. Where there is no such natural elevation it will be necessary to lay them farther back in the line of the fence, so that they may be set on edge. They should be set in the ground deep enough. Cement blocks may be used in the same manner as posts.

Roofs and Floors.

There are many cheap materials that can be used in place of shingles. Tarred paper is to be preferred a little cheaper, but in lasting qualities they are not to be compared with shingles. The life of shingles can be increased by painting with a thin wash mixed with creosote as described in article I. This will also make them look like the abandoned of handling the treated posts.

For floors there is nothing better than cement. Cement floors are much more durable than wood, and do not cost only a little more to start with. They are also cleaner, and can easily be built first and the building set up with no other changes. In cheap buildings, like barns, should have solid floors throughout. The floors may be built to extend out about twelve inches from the walls to make a clean feeding floor for the fattening stock, and to prevent the rain from driving in.

The foundation for a cement floor should consist of six inches or more of clinkers or coarse gravel. This is not high and well drained a line of tile should be laid around the outside of the floor to carry off the water that collect. On this foundation a layer of concrete should be laid, composed of three inches thick, according to the purpose for which the floor is to be used. Horse stalls floors need to be much stronger than those for the cattle or machine shed. For most farm purposes three inches is sufficient. The concrete are one part cement, three parts coarse sand and five parts broken stone or gravel. This should be spread evenly over the foundation after it has set for a few hours it is ready to receive the finish.

A finishing or wearing surface is necessary to keep the floor from being unduly worn. It is also smoother and more easily kept clean. This may be made of one part cement to one part sand and one-half parts sand and be put on to the thickness of one inch over the one-half inches. As soon as it has begun to set it should be troweled until about six inches square to prevent the surface from cracking. This will not be necessary if the floor is to be covered with boards, but it is necessary if it is to be left exposed. Cement floors are very slippery when wet, and should be covered with boards or have some other provision made to prevent slipping.

Roofs and Floors.

There are many cheap materials that can be used in place of shingles. Tarred paper is to be preferred a little cheaper, but in lasting qualities they are not to be compared with shingles. The life of shingles can be increased by painting with a thin wash mixed with creosote as described in article I. This will also make them look like the abandoned of handling the treated posts.

For floors there is nothing better than cement. Cement floors are much more durable than wood, and do not cost only a little more to start with. They are also cleaner, and can easily be built first and the building set up with no other changes. In cheap buildings, like barns, should have solid floors throughout. The floors may be built to extend out about twelve inches from the walls to make a clean feeding floor for the fattening stock, and to prevent the rain from driving in.

The foundation for a cement floor should consist of six inches or more of clinkers or coarse gravel. This is not high and well drained a line of tile should be laid around the outside of the floor to carry off the water that collect. On this foundation a layer of concrete should be laid, composed of three inches thick, according to the purpose for which the floor is to be used. Horse stalls floors need to be much stronger than those for the cattle or machine shed. For most farm purposes three inches is sufficient. The concrete are one part cement, three parts coarse sand and five parts broken stone or gravel. This should be spread evenly over the foundation after it has set for a few hours it is ready to receive the finish.

A finishing or wearing surface is necessary to keep the floor from being unduly worn. It is also smoother and more easily kept clean. This may be made of one part cement to one part sand and one-half parts sand and be put on to the thickness of one inch over the one-half inches. As soon as it has begun to set it should be troweled until about six inches square to prevent the surface from cracking. This will not be necessary if the floor is to be covered with boards, but it is necessary if it is to be left exposed. Cement floors are very slippery when wet, and should be covered with boards or have some other provision made to prevent slipping.

FIG. 2.—A GOOD PAIR GATE.

FIG. 2.—A GOOD PAIR GATE.

FIG. 2.—A GOOD PAIR GATE.

FURNITURE

Our values are always good, but just now we can give you some especially good ones.

Our store has always had the reputation for selling better goods for less money than you can get elsewhere.

Why not take a look, we will be able to convince you that you can Save Money.

Now is the time to replace that old mattress with a new one, and likewise replace lots of other things:

Bedroom Suites, Parlor Suites, Dining Room Suites, Rockers, etc.

H. B. BENDER,
The Homefurnisher.

Our Specialties

Correct Posing
Popular Tones
Scientific Lighting
The Latest Styles

J. I. MUMPER, Photographer

ADAMS COUNTY NEWS

PUBLISHED SATURDAYS

N.W. Cornerman and Hemplemyer Streets, Gettysburg

Times and News Publishing Company

W. Lawrence Hafer

Sup'y & Treas.

Philip R. Bikle

Treas. and Editor

Subscription $2 per year, if paid in advance.

The date to which your subscription is paid, is on the green label attached to your paper.

If the date is not changed within a week after you send money, please let us know.

The Adams County News will be pleased to receive communications, if they are signed by the party who sends them. We have both reporters and ask that our friends help place the news wherever possible.

Entered as second-class matter December 19, 1908, at the post office at Gettysburg, Pa., under the act of March 3, 1879.

TO OUR READERS

The Adams County News takes pleasure in not yet publishing stories on all such matters. Anything that appears in our general news columns, concerning state or national politics, is furnished us by the American Press Association, a concern which gives the same news to Republican, Democratic, Prohibition or Socialist papers and which is strictly non-partisan.

Our editorial columns are open to all candidates and all parties.

Letters of Interesting News From Adams County Towns

Personals and Items of News Interest from Various Towns in the County. What the People in the Different Sections are Doing. Entertaining Visitors.

Services in the County Churches

LIBERTY HALL

Liberty Hall, Oct. 29—Miss Ellen Miller, of Arendtsville, spent Saturday and Sunday with Miss Edna Hunter.

W. T. S. Stiles and sons, Sherman, Milton and Emmert, Miss Grace Black and Mr. R. S. Elder visited at John H. Kugler's on Sunday.

Mrs. John Kugler and Mrs. Sherman Stiles visited Mrs. J. R. Wible on Sunday.

Frank Shindledecker and Miss Edna B. Troxell were quietly married in Hagerstown on Oct. 13.

Misses Edna Rice and Edna Miller visited Miss Grace Plank on Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. M. R. Hull and Mrs. Jennie R. White are on the sick list.

Miss Grace Plank visited at Mr. H. Boyd's at east Middlesex's school house on Friday and Saturday.

YORK SPRINGS

York Springs, Oct. 29—Howard Yeatts spent a few days at Mechanicsburg with his daughter, Mrs. George Whitcomb.

David Shultz and son, of Hetterbrick, spent Sunday with C. E. Rhoads and wife.

Mr. Charles Fackler, of Harrisburg, is spending a few days with Mrs. C. C. Smith.

Jacob R. Lisbey and wife spent Sunday at Gettysburg.

Mrs. W. O. Umbarger has sold her property in this place to Daniel Detrick for $250.

John Myers met with a very painful accident on Tuesday. A spark got up from the sawmill striking him in the eye causing intense pain.

York Springs, Oct. 29—Dr. and Mrs. T. L. McCleaf have left for Baltimore where they will make their future home.

Mrs. William Livingston and daughter, Miss Emily, from west Main St. to make Harrisburg their future home.

BONNEAUVILLE

Bonneauville, Oct. 29—John Wagner and wife spent Wednesday in Gettysburg on business.

Christian Gotthart and daughter Amelia spent Sunday among former friends.

Peter Kober wife and daughter, Marie, were Gettysburg visitors on Thursday.

Hiram Hill and family spent Sunday with Dr. Hamilton and wife.

Mrs. Fabian Staub spent Wednesday with Mrs. Ezra Hann.

Miss Mary Hollinger returned to Gettysburg after spending several weeks at her home in Bonneauville.

E. L. Cobbs and wife spent Sunday with her parents in Gettysburg.

Those who spent Sunday with Eugene Mathers and wife were, J. F. Mather and wife, Christian Gabbert and daughter, Annie, Simon Myers, William Gabbert, Charles Klunk.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Stonis spent Sunday with John Miller on Mahlon Stonis and wife of Two Taverns.

Mr. and Mrs. William Klunk, of Hollinger's store, spent Sunday with friends in this place.

Mrs. Hollinger and son, Joe, spent Sunday evening with John Miller and wife.

BIG LOAD

On Tuesday Edward Wagner, of Bonneauville, driving the team of Calvin Klunk, of Hilltop, brought a load back to the Dutters tannery. This is a great five team and covers pretty close to being a record breaker.

ORRTANNA ROUTE 2

Orrtanna, Route 2, Oct. 29—Miss Peters and Miss Jane McDowell, of Chambersburg, visited Mr. and Mrs. Hugh McDowell on Sunday.

Samuel L. Irvin, wife and daughter, Chris, spent last Thursday in Chambersburg.

John Hall, Sr., is visiting his daughter, Mrs. Nannie Swink, of Hagerstown.

Miss Alice Wingert, of Fredericville, and Mrs. Fred Kelley, of near Quincy, visited their grandmother, Mrs. Julia Wingert and their uncle, Jacob Wingert, in the days last week.

Miss Mary G. Irvin is visiting her cousin, Mrs. Albert Rice, of Fayetteville.

John Staub, of New Oxford, visited John Irvin and William Clapsaddle last week.

Those who spent Sunday at the home of Daniel Bushey and family of near Orrtanna, were Frank Shindledecker and wife, of near Greenmount; Mrs. William Bushey, of Fairfield; Miss Bertha Merritt, Luther and John, of Gettysburg; Mrs. Ellen Hoke and daughter, Sylvia, of Mortimer.

Mrs. Elizabeth Bushey, Misses Ethel and Viola Bushey, of near Orrtanna, visited Lloyd Troxell, Sherry Hersey.

Mrs. Berry Sillick visited at the home of Isabel Bushey and family last Wednesday.

Wilfred Keiser has gone to New Oxford, where he has employment with Gen. Oswald.

Mrs. George Shepard and Mrs. Nellie Tate, of Rossboro Valley, and Miss Helen Shepard, of Philadelphia, spent Tuesday in Chambersburg.

BENDERSVILLE

Bendersville, Oct. 29—Rev. and Mrs. Barry Wolfley, of Philadelphia, spent several days with Mr. and Mrs. Wolfley's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Wolfley.

Edward Porter, of Harrisburg, is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Porter.

Mrs. John Sheads, of Fort Scott, Kansas, was a recent guest of D. H. Hinne and family.

Miss Ethel Thomas visited in York last week.

Misses Inez and Ada Barbee, of Bowmansdale, were the guests of Miss Ethel Thomas on Sunday.

Andrew McKinney is putting a new roof on his house on South Main street. Harry Bender's house is undergoing repairs.

IRON SPRINGS

Iron Springs, Oct. 29—Mr. and Mrs. Harry Shindledecker, of near Quincy, visited their grandmother, Mrs. Shindledecker, of Fountain Dale, on Sunday last week.

Mrs. Harry Beck and daughter, Dorothy, spent a business trip to Gettysburg recently.

William Hoop and his bull keep have moved to Fountain Dale, where he will be employed.

Mrs. Hoop made a trip to Hagerstown, Williamsport and Winchester, Va., Virginia.

WHITE RUN

White Run, Oct. 29—Luther Deardorff and wife attended the Lutheran Church, Two Taverns on Sunday evening last week.

Mrs. Jacob Eckert, Mrs. L. B. Sieber, of Gettysburg, will preach on Sunday morning and evening, Nov. 4 at 7 o'clock.

Miss Rosie Collins spent Sunday with Misses Lizzie and Frances Appler of Two Taverns.

W. J. Collins is building a smoke house.

High Flood made a trip to Fredericksburg last week.

Howard McCarrick, of this place, formerly of Waynesboro, spent Sunday night in Gettysburg.

The Teachers' Institute which was to have been held on Saturday afternoon was postponed on account of the rain.

Marvin Winebrode and family, of Germany township, spent Sunday with their home here.

Samuel Clutz, Charles Winbrode, of near this place.

VIRGINIA MILLS

Virginia Mills, Oct. 29—A party of Fairfield men and boys who were camping in this vicinity left on Monday for their homes.

Elmer Bennett and wife, of Fairfield Station, visited John Kump and family on last Sunday.

Mrs. Levi McVerry and son, Steelton, of Highland Park, are visiting Mrs. Elizabeth Watson on last Monday.

Mrs. Harriet Carbaugh and son, Lewis, of McAllisterville, are visiting Mrs. E. Wesen recently.

W. A. Shallenberger and Miss Grace Daywalt still continue on the sick list.

Miss Josephine Buckley, made a business trip to Gettysburg on Monday.

Messrs. Oscar Barnes and Howard Baker, of Fayetteville, R. D. 1, spent Tuesday and Wednesday with Mrs. Dora Wallis who entertained them with Gem on Wednesday.

Orrie Knoll, of Chernside, is looking after the prospects of the Eagle Metallic Copper Company at Eagle.

Misses Allen, Daley and Goldie Carbaugh spent Sunday with Miss Fairchild on last Monday.

Harvey Trimmer and son, of Germantown, passed through this vicinity on Tuesday.

NEW CHESTER

New Chester, Oct. 29—Mr. and Mrs Ellsworth Neely, of New Oxford, spent Sunday with J. E. Havenstock and family.

A. C. Hoffelmn visited at York.

Rev. Paul Wagner, of near Pitzing, visited his mother, Mrs. Katharine Wagner, of this place.

Charles Winand, wife and son, Glenn, Baker, of Hanover, and daughter, Ruth, spent Sunday with J. E. Havenstock and family.

Rev. W. A. Kerr, of New Oxford, spent Sunday at this place.

John Hoffman, wife and daughter, Clara, of near New Chester, spent Sunday with Mrs. Lottie McDonald.

There was a social dance at which H. Hoff and family were. Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Hoff, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hoff, wife and daughter, Mrs. Emory Hummel, and daughter, Curtis Lambert and wife, all of East Berlin; Curtis Eisenhart, wife and son, of Hanover.

William Mosel, wife and daughter, of New Oxford, and Mrs. Lizzie Mosel, wife of Arendtsville, spent Sunday with David Gardner and family.

Lloyd and Charles Myers, of New Oxford, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. John H. Rushour.

BARLOW

Barlow, Oct. 29—In this vicinity, the dust on the roads is quite badly stirred by the recent heavy rains.

The leaves are fast falling from the trees in the forests. A sign of the approach of winter.

William Hartig, one of our chairmen farmers, from five acres received 65 bushels of good fine corn.

Samson Conover, of Pogtown, was at Mt. Joy at Christian Gingrich's sale on Tuesday evening.

Lloyd Kauffman spent Sunday evening with friends at White Run.

Chevrier Pair is nursing a most disagreeable cough and cold.

For the past few days the innocent little squirrel has been driven from his place of abode all over creation and often times has to hide, which is the most desired by the farmer and his 12 gauge double barrel shot gun.

Many people in this community witnessed the eclipse of Mars by Negative last week.

Services at Mt. Joy next Sunday at 10:30. Sunday school at 9:00 Christian Endeavor at 7:00.

IDAVILLE

Idaville, Oct. 29—Mrs. J. O. Orouse and Mrs. Mont Orouse, of Gettysburg Orouse spent Saturday in Carlisle.

Born Oct. 24, to Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Miller, a son.

Peter Penner spent Saturday forenoon in Mount Holly Springs.

Wesley Miller and son, Parker, spent Saturday in Carlisle.

Mrs. Ella D. Guise and daughter, Maud, of Aspers, spent Sunday with J. H. Little and wife.

Misses. Calvin Pentze and Guy Miller have gone to Cornwall where they have secured employment.

ABBOTTSTOWN

Abbottstown, Oct. 29—P. L. Elliot and wife have returned from a visit in New York City.

Mrs. Leah Scott of Hemlock town, ship, aged 84 years, died suddenly Sunday morning at the residence of her son-in-law, Jacob Hartman. Interment at Bonnett's Meeting House Thursday forenoon.

The shortage of the corn crop in this neighborhood will undoubtedly form one of the topics of the pulpits of some of their sticks.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Jacob B. Carbaugh, of Berlin Junction, Sunday.

The New York Herald and Atlantic Journal enthusiasts can passed through here Tuesday afternoon with north fifty cars in the run.

HEIDLERSBURG

Heidlersburg, Oct. 29—Mrs. Mattie Pittenger, who has been sick for some time is now able to be around again.

Hiram Marks has gone to Thomasville, Ga., where he has secured employment.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Diehl, of Hanover, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Bair and Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Snook.

Mrs. Ida Bair and son have returned home after visiting her aunt in Baltimore for a few days.

Mrs. Sarah Brenizer spent Sunday with E. P. Brenizer and wife.

Harold Bair, who has been seriously ill for some time is not much improved at this writing.

Mr. and Mrs. Merrin Eichelberger and two children spent Sunday with Mr. J. E. Havenstock and wife.

Mrs. William Peters, Mrs. Jacob Deeder and Mrs. Ida Bair attended to their bonus after visiting in the Washington Sanitarium.

Charley Brown is expected to arrive here with his two carloads of stock from Chicago.

EAST BERLIN

East Berlin, Oct. 29—Some of our farmers have finished husking their corn, and the crop is better than expected.

W. C. Leib is ill with the Typhoid Fever. Dr. G. E. Spotz, of Hampton, Pa., is attending him.

G. A. Jacobs, who was visiting relatives in this place for several months left on Tuesday of last week for his home in Hampton, Pa.

Edward Reiland and wife, of Reisterstown, Md., spent last Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. J. Frank Myers.

Rev. W. J. Miller will hold Communion services at the following places and dates: Red Run, Oct. 31, Hampton, Nov. 1st; Bethel, Nov. 14th; and East Berlin, Nov. 15th.

Abraham Koontz and wife and Reuben Harrison and wife, of Littlestown, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. D. Lobert on Sunday.

Mrs. Myers, of near Hampton, and John D. W. Bunghaven, of Round Hill, spent Sunday with relatives.

KRALLTOWN

Krolltown, Oct. 29—Jacob Bear, wife and family called on Clarence Hoffman and wife Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Maria Barbold is spending some time with her daughter, Mrs. Clarence Hoffman and family.

W. A. and E. J. Singer spent Monday in York.

C. B. Krall spent Tuesday evening with W. H. Lawrence and family.

Jones Hainsbert, of New Oxford, spent Saturday at the home of his brother-in-law, Harvey Hoffman.

O. T. Griffis and wife spent Sunday with their parents, D. M. Griffis and wife, of near New Oxford.

Mrs. Ida Fuhrman and his father were visitors in town Sunday.

Communion service was well attended at St. Paul's Reformed. Seven new members were added to the church.

P. E. Singer's sale on Saturday at Daylesburg.

Evening Sonts and wife, Leo Baker, wife and daughter, were entertained at P. E. Singer's Sunday.

Preaching service at this place Sunday at 2:45 p. m., by Bishop Herbert; Sunday School at 2:00 p. m. All are welcome.

Greatest line of Underwear for all sizes of people ever shown in Gettysburg. Stern's.

Mrs. Calvin Pentze and Guy Miller have gone to Cornwall where they have secured employment.

ARENDTSVILLE

Arendtsville, Oct. 29—The three months old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Miller died Sunday morning after a brief illness with cholera infantum. Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, Rev. Wolfley officiating. Interment in the Hill cemetery.

Several days ago when David Lentz, of this place, was out gunning he shot a large ground hog. They are reported plentiful.

Our sportsmen report partridges very scarce in this locality.

Now one is selling at 60 cents per bushel. Mrs. Thomas 65 cents. Clearance $8.25 per bushel.

Miss Grace Hill, of this place, received $6 birthday cards. His birthday was on the 19th inst.

Mr. and Mrs. A. I. Weidner, of this place, spent several days in Baltimore recently.

Calvin A. Weaver has gone to Harrisburg where he has secured employment at the state capitol.

Mrs. Harry Hiser, of Harrisburg, is visiting her mother, Mrs. Ellen L. Wagner in this place.

FOUNTAIN DALE

Fountain Dale, Oct. 29—Miss Beulah Wills, of Baltimore, is spending some time with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Wills.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Sheetz and daughter, Ruth, spent Thursday in Waynesboro.

Miss Rosie Trosler spent Sunday with her sister, Mrs William Warner.

Misses Ada and Alice Trosler and Mr. Tom Hoop spent Thursday with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Trosler.

Mrs W. C. Trosler and daughter, Julia, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Trosler, of Mount Wilson.

Miss Hazel Trosler spent Sunday with Miss Emma Cline.

Some of the members of this vicinity attended the teachers' meeting at Oregon School, Friday night.

Miss Ada Trosler closed at the Valley School Friday, Nov. 5, in the afternoon.

The teachers' meeting will be held at Fountain Dale Public School on Friday evening, Oct. 29.

Mrs. Trosler spent Saturday and Sunday with her parents near Liberty Hall.

WENKSVILLE

Wenksville, Oct. 29—Sunday School will be held in the Methodist church at Wenksville next Sunday. Preaching services at 2 o'clock.

The farmers are busily engaged in husking corn.

Those who sold six bushels of wheat out of Nelson Beamer's granary received—

Those who visited Fred Showers and family on Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Myers and children, Ruth Ungie, Eugene and Anna. Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Myers and children, Beatrice, Acola, Ralph and Evelyn and Mrs. Sue Myers and children.

Mrs. John Sheaffer and sons, Dale and Ralph, spent Sunday with Buck's on Monday.

Amos Brown and wife, of Littlestown, and Miss Hermie Wenk and brothers, Guy and John, visited Jacob Wenk and family Sunday.

S. G. Warner made a business trip to Gettysburg Monday.

Messrs. Howard Spangler, Ralph and Carol Spangler, of near Idaville, visited Elias Hoffman and family over Sunday.

Stein and Groupe Orose visited their friends Rath and Paul Hoffman on Sunday.

Nelson Beamer, wife and daughter, Mrs. Ida Fuhrman and his father spent Sunday visiting at the home of Aaron Beamer, of Littlestown.

Harry Black and granddaughter, Ruth Carol Cramer, spent afternoon with Lewis Orner and family.

Those who visited Joseph Taylor and family on Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Taylor, wife and son, Harold, of Arendtsville, Ida Snover and Miss Nora Werner, of Baylis, Wilda, Tillie and Miss Werner, Eva and Hester Taylor, Emmert Warner, Charles Taylor, Minnie, Erma and Ward Taylor, of this place.

FAIRFIELD

Fairfield, Oct. 29—Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hoke, of Gettysburg, and George Frein spent last week in Baltimore with Mr. Lowe's daughter.

Miss Daisy Moore is spending some time with her brother, Mr. and Mrs. Ross Moore.

Mrs. Julia Beaver is visiting her son in Waynesboro.

Mrs. Lewis Wagner, of Iowa, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Sanders.

George Gerbrich, of Wrightsville, Kansas, an old time friends here last week.

Thaddeus Stultz, of Liberty township, while spending some time with his sister, Mrs. Cromer, of Fayetteville, had a paralytic stroke about two weeks ago and died on Tuesday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Adam Frey have gone to Kenova and from there expect to go to California to spend the winter.

Miss Catherine Hoke is visiting with Mrs Harry Ives.

Mrs. Harry Shue Sieecker and son, spent Sunday with Lester Sowers and family.

Dr. Trout has taken Anthony Sanders back to the hospital in Baltimore where he will receive treatment for a time. He is reported to be resting comfortably.

Mrs. Robert Hill, of near Orrtanna, spent Tuesday of last week with Mrs. Mary Engler last week.

John Wagner, of John

TAFT RUNS AWAY FROM RIVER FLEET

Was Six Hours Late and Started to Make It Up.

ENTERTAINMENT PLANS UPSET

The Twenty-five Governors and 177 Congressmen Deserted Boats For the Railroad to Advertise the President Again Left in the Lurch at Green ville.

Vicksburg, Miss., Oct. 23.—President Taft was away from the Mississippi flotilla over Sunday, and part of the second hotel investigating the Mississippi flood, because of a railroad train. The twenty-five governors and the 177 congressmen were expecting from the deserted the fleet for seats in Parisian parlor cars. The whistle inside arose through the bungling of the St. Louis Business Men's League in arranging the schedule for the trip. They had to make up time and get the fastest boat in the Taft fleet and the advantage of the slower, but safer, together, divided by two and accounted for the running of the steamer Dixie and their running all night. The result was the President and the Dixie arrived at Vicksburg six hours late instead of as they could do.

The governors and the congressmen found themselves hopelessly behind the president's boat. They, however, was scheduled to reach this city at 8 o'clock in the afternoon, and when the last started out to make his own way he was six hours late. The governors and the congressmen knew that Vicksburg had made big preparations for their entertainment, and they were a mighty peevish lot until the first railroad suggestion occurred to several of them. At that time the governors' train was the last in the line. The twenty-five executives had the privilege of watching each of the big tube pull away. The congressmen followed. They were not in a much better shape.

Congressmen as Passengers.

The governors, congressmen and a hundred and two of the deep waterway visitors were dumped out upon the Greenville levee, and after a wait of a fifteen-minute trolley ride into the town, the delegation was herded into a barge, while many a rear platform was loaded with governors.

Greenville won't ever get over this experience. It was the most unexpectedly distinguished visit that it ever had, and it went limping bravely to get a good look. The entire train was packed with the entire crowd of congressmen, and not governors were left in this.

The president arrived on the night-house trolley about three hours late. The congressmen and governors stood and cheered every point of the program here, and the president arrived in time to attempt to deliver a brief address.

The president left seats at midnight on his boat, and at that time the congressmen and the governors were still standing on the levee straining their eyes to catch a glimpse of the president on his boat up the river. Most of the congressmen got there, and most of that they were disappointed. Others, however, were several shades more bad-tempered. The president's stop yesterday was the first when he got before the public since leaving Memphis.

STRANGE ILLNESS IN SCHOOL

Forty Students Rushed to Atlanta Hospital Suffering From Diseases.

Atlanta, Ga., Oct. 23.—Forty students of the Georgia Military academy near this city, were stricken with a form of typhoid from an illness which has at- tacked the school for three weeks. They were distributed among several hospitals. The source of their illness has not been learned.

Escaped Cartwheeler: Killed by Auto.

Owensville, Conn., Oct. 23.—Two-year-old Joseph Corenne was run over and fatally injured by a W. Gilbert, Jr., health officer, in his automobile. The boy died later in the hospital. Mrs. Joseph Corenne corthpanks young Corenne had escaped from parental control and by jumping out of a window and so started in the house to cartwheel. They were still in the building.

Explosive Cartridge Factor Launched.

Bridgeport, Oct. 26.—The Remington-Union Metallic Cartridge company's new plant was launched at the Davenport yards the 15 of 1000 men will be employed with 40,000 horse power and an estimated space of operation of 1,000,000 hour. The new fighter is 170 feet long. She will carry eight 12-inch and twelve 6-inch guns.

Gun Mounts Per Battleship.

Washington, Oct. 23.—A contract for the manufacture of four 12-inch gun carriages has been awarded by the secretary department to the Bethlehem Steel company, of South Bethlehem, Pa., at a total cost of $209,428. These mounts are for the new battleships Wyoming and Arkansas.

Texans Crown Queen Victoria.

Lamkpasas, Tex., Oct. 23.—A Brownsboro, Texas county interests crowned Miss Victoria Gill, the queen of the 15,000 pioneer of a two days' celebration ago, will go to New Orleans because he fears violence by night riders.

WILL DISMISS THE CROOKS

Collector Loeb Will Clean Out the New York Custom House Service.

New York, Oct. 25.—Collector Loeb and Special Counsel W. Wickersham admitted that the customs service is to retire with Taft.

They have reason to know the trend of the move as new customs officials before imposters into plain clothes and found how the service was run. Secretary MacVeagh is said to be behind the drive in the Loeb Ballsly on the facts.

The federal grand jury will continue investigation to sweep the service clean. This idea, they say, the investigations will be made the scape goat of the political officials higher in the service of immunity, the word went out that the investigations should not implicate the discharge of suspected officials in the service. Whether the new collector Loeb went out to new deals and evidence that have been ranged.

FLOWER NAMED FOR TAFT

Is a Chrysanthemum, Pure White, Medium Size and Early Bloomer.

Washington, Oct. 26.—The President Taft will be honored by the next annual chrysanthemum show of the agricultural department. The conservatory announced the new varieties, being a pure white, medium sized flower.

The President Taft is a gamble flower, a chrysanthemum, a beautiful flower. It is not exceptionally large, but the petals are long and curled and the flower in such a manner as to give the effect of a large flower, adding from to the distance of a mile mast.

GIVES HIMSELF UP AS TRAIN ROBBER

Tells Philadelphia Policeman He Is Lowtown Bandit.

Philadelphia, Oct. 26. — Declaring that his conscience had got the better of him, Frank Lowtown, a man of trying to evade the law, a surely confessed to Police Lieutenant Thomas O'Brien, surrendered himself and confessed to the train robbery. Medical examiner, Dr. Egbert Reinhart, assistant; Dr. Edward Martin, assistant; Dr. Alexander Medical assistant; Dr. Edward Martin, assistant; Dr. Alexander Medical assistant; Dr. Reinhart,

STATE TROOPERS SHOOT AND TAKE WENKSVILLE MAN

Corey Black, of Wenksville, Captured by Two State Troopers. Charged with Causing Forest Fires. Long Implicated in Robberies and Shooting a Man.

[illegible] Corey Black, of Wenksville, was captured by two State Troopers, Charged with Causing Forest Fires. Long Implicated in Robberies and Shooting a Man.

Motor Marksmen pulling after the South Richland bank were called from his lookout to the bank's aid. When he returned a package of bills [illegible] Captain Dan had taken from the sheriff before him, we guess. [illegible] Long was arrested for [illegible] the backbone of his case. He had not been allowed these privileges. So as to produce would have been to turn out [illegible] the best evidence against Black. No one need be in a hurry to [illegible] with Black and the murder of Farmer had been avenged and restored [illegible] Long's testimony was the only [illegible] that some one of his allies had engaged [illegible] Black's trial. Long was [illegible] and held over the night in the [illegible] window, and it was not there now. [illegible] Long's testimony that he would be sure, full well exactly where it [illegible] Black's testimony [illegible] Long being could have removed it. But [illegible] Black's testimony [illegible] taken, he rushed into the president's office and fearlessly reported the loss.

The president turned in his notice [illegible] he said, "I'll not [illegible] place upon the letter. Convinced that [illegible] was involved somewhere and [illegible] he said:

"Come, I need lead. Mr. Markham. It will help you to recall intimate circumstances. Where was the last time you saw the package of bills? Was it when the money was there?"

Long gave the details of the [illegible] purse, all of which had been and were [illegible] Markham, and the president [illegible] would or could have committed the [illegible] he said.

The president called the cashier into his office and [illegible] the conference conversation the three men went to [illegible] Markham was the first to [illegible] to something how it would be possible [illegible] Long's bills in the [illegible] one week point appeared. The cashier [illegible] suggested that there was the [illegible] that some one might have stood [illegible] window, and, seeing the [illegible] inside the frame and have withdrawn [illegible] Markham [illegible] that the [illegible] Long's bills. Mr. Markham would not have been likely to [illegible] the [illegible] of the window. Of course, though all but his arm would [illegible] the [illegible] Markham was in all right feet high.

The party examined the embossed frame outside the cage and found the [illegible] of some wet [illegible] on the stone, probably the head of a nail or [illegible] The [illegible] [illegible] freshly made was evident, for when [illegible] and examined [illegible] were found to be sharp and no [illegible] had been driven in the [illegible] even after a time.

The [illegible] the bank were examined by an expert accountant, and it was discovered that [illegible] of the [illegible] correct. No one had been [illegible] [illegible] and [illegible] [illegible] in measuring [illegible] and it is [illegible] at the directors it was decided to "lay him off." Markham received the information of his action in a courtly manner.

The case was reported to a prominent attorney [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] to work in two directions. They [illegible] to consider the [illegible] on the [illegible] and to establish a [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]

WASHINGTON ST. HOME ENTERED

House of Jacob Strang on South Washington Street Entered by Negro who is Later Captured by Local Police.

Monday morning, Chief Sheeler and Officer O'Hara arrested Lloyd Williams on a charge of breaking and entering the home of Jacob Strang on South Washington street and committing other mischief.

The alarm was sounded shortly before nine o'clock Monday morning by parties who were driving down Main street. Officer Sheeler and Officer O'Hara started for the scene in the police auto and were soon joined by Officer Bowers, who was following on foot. Williams was arrested on Monday. He was given a hearing by Squire Wilson and held for Court.

The man came from Virginia and has been a resident of Gettysburg for about three months. He was given a night Chief Gordon says that he was transported and released on a bond of $100, following him some distance after he saw the man and made arrangements for the purchase of the bond. Williams was arrested by Officer Sheeler and Officer O'Hara, it is believed, will cause this to be done.

It now develops that about as soon as after the home was entered Monday morning some one was from the house of Imogen Cook, in which his daughter board a noise down stairs and called her father. The would be thief evidently thought the coast was clear to beat a hasty retreat and he jumped through a window in the hall, all who knew our Cook home happened to be looking out at the time and he was now just busy. She called her father and the man was hastily down the alley. Though it was dark Mrs. Tawil could see his outline plainly and it coincides precisely with Williams' appearance.

Between three and four o'clock on Monday morning Constables Harry Beck of West Middle street, heard some one in the rear of his house and got up to see his territory once again. He evidently made some noise for he was in bed when he heard a gruff voice in the rear of the house. He looked out of the window and saw the second floor of the home opened and over the other into the yard, ran down there to the yard of Chief Gordon and then came out on Middle street.

The theory has been advanced that Williams may have been implicated in the two barn fires. The officers we put up to him but he of course denied the accusation and said that he was not even in town when the fires were occurred.

Early Tuesday morning some one threw a stone through the show window of the Hammer Hair Store on Chambersburg street and took from it several packages of tobacco and some pipes. The stone was evidently thrown from a distance for it went through both panes of the inner windows and was found on the floor in the middle of the room. Tuesday morning several stones were found outside showing that a number of attempts to break the window had taken place. It is believed that the thief or the window set some time before taking the goods and threw the stones from a distance to avoid detection.

AN UGLY ACCIDENT

Miss Maud Decker, of Cumberland township, while riding horseback on Sunday afternoon met with an accident which might have proved fatal. Near the "Y" on the Emmitsburg road close to town her horse started to gallop and when in the act of turning into the animal to keep close to her companion, Miss Lauer, that she lost control and fell backward over the tails of the horse to the avenue. She was stunned by the sudden fall but no other injuries have as yet been discovered. The horse on finding its rider gone ran but a short distance. Miss Decker after recovering her horse, mounted and rode home.

George Wible, of route 4 has a horse which is sick from being kicked.

TEACHERS' MEETINGS

The various township institutes of Adams county will be held during the week beginning Monday. In many instances the meetings will be held in the evening in order that the teachers may attend without losing time from their schools. The following is a list of the meetings to be held:

Monday evening, Cumberland township, Miss Ella Berry, "Why do Teachers Fail?" Miss Jennie B. Duncan.

Tuesday evening, the school teachers of Freedom township, held an institute meeting at Bendersville School House. All the teachers, the County Superintendent and a number of citizens were present. The subject matter of the meeting was taken from the entertainment part of the program and the following papers were read: "Thoroughness," J. Lester Breining; "Language," Miss Jennie Hoffman; "Physics," Miss Jennie B. Duncan.

Wednesday evening, Mt. Joy township, Miss Ella Berry, "Why do Teachers Fail?" Miss Jennie B. Duncan.

Thursday evening, Latimore township, Miss Ella Berry, "Why do Teachers Fail?" Miss Jennie B. Duncan.

Friday evening, Reading township, Miss Ella Berry, "Why do Teachers Fail?" Miss Jennie B. Duncan.

Saturday morning, Cumberland township, Rock of West Middle street, has some ore in the rear of his house and got up to get his territory once again. He evidently made some noise for he was in bed when he heard a gruff voice in the rear of the house. He looked out of the window and saw the second floor of the home opened and over the other into the yard, ran down there to the yard of Chief Gordon and then came out on Middle street.

The theory has been advanced that Williams may have been implicated in the two barn fires. The officers we put up to him but he of course denied the accusation and said that he was not even in town when the fires were occurred.

Early Tuesday morning some one threw a stone through the show window of the Hammer Hair Store on Chambersburg street and took from it several packages of tobacco and some pipes. The stone was evidently thrown from a distance for it went through both panes of the inner windows and was found on the floor in the middle of the room. Tuesday morning several stones were found outside showing that a number of attempts to break the window had taken place. It is believed that the thief or the window set some time before taking the goods and threw the stones from a distance to avoid detection.

AN UGLY ACCIDENT

Miss Maud Decker, of Cumberland township, while riding horseback on Sunday afternoon met with an accident which might have proved fatal. Near the "Y" on the Emmitsburg road close to town her horse started to gallop and when in the act of turning into the animal to keep close to her companion, Miss Lauer, that she lost control and fell backward over the tails of the horse to the avenue. She was stunned by the sudden fall but no other injuries have as yet been discovered. The horse on finding its rider gone ran but a short distance. Miss Decker after recovering her horse, mounted and rode home.

George Wible, of route 4 has a horse which is sick from being kicked.

PIGS' FEET.

A Poor Foot Regarded by an Expert as a Fatal Weakness.

One of the most serious experts on horse in this country has this to say in regard to temperament and feet play in the standard of perfection in the stallion:

I have never yet seen a good hog that had a fair to fine quality and that was look at its feet first, and unless this built very much like a hog, and of that individual.

The hog must have as a final weakness, and for some reason or other it has. Now, I am not a veterinarian, but I can say other weakness examined in the horse is considered as much as this fact that throughout the entire body and limbs of the hog, from the head to the tone, thus predisposing the animal to disease, and the feet are very frequently the old saying, "No feet, no horse," applies to the hog, "No feet, no hog."

In these days, when we are trying to get them up to 250 pounds at eight or nine months old, the feet are the very pinning of the right form and character and they will not stand the strain. Hogs "down in the heel" soon get sore and are subject to all kinds of ailments lack of exercise, which in turn results disease and wasting time.

As our shows are primarily shows of breeding purebred, I hope that every one judges will emphasize this matter that many a good hog is an overlooked on account of his shown that he has springs his pasterns, while under a lighter load he might show the best he foot form. In such a case I do not think that the judge would be to be censurable for turning down altogether the best hog in the class. I am inclined to think that a good foot and leg in the hog is worth more than 50 per cent. I have it combined with heart girth you have a picture of the ideal with a clean or defined tendency to make good use of the food consumed.

A HOG WITH GOOD FEET

While we do not breed our hogs for speed, yet we do not like to see a hog, yet as they are always urged to hurry and get on an early pen as soon as they and the right kind of pastern joint will help in this regard, in the case of the best as in the horse.

When two horses become accustomed to working together, don't choose to travel in a single road.

Make them so one, switch and dispose of the poor ones.

It is very hard on a young horse to be driven by the side of an old one.

The wear and tear is great and unnecessary, and is of no benefit.

A Gimlet Is Costly.

Sensible men in every walk of life in the making of a drinker or ruling out a habitual drunkard in any business. A small bloodsucker will not only lower the value of a horse, but will often prevent the sale entirely.

Feeding Horses Anywhere.

In instant horses are used with always the same, while the others are used with entirely while. A horse that is used only occasionally is apt to be irritable. The shoes thus unfit are unable to do anything but injure by no behavior.

The Overweighted Horse.

An authority expresses himself as follows: As an old horseman who has bred and handled horses of many types I have had considerable experience in the answers given by the majority of persons when asked the question, "What constitutes the most striking characteristic of a horse overweighted and the common horse?" The shortest and most frequent answer the beauty or the speed of the horse. Others will say the horse is not a good roadster, or he is not a good worker. It is simply that the thoroughbred horse is the most beautiful of all the fashionable carriage and exhibition horses, and the most valuable and useful in racing.

Feed Your Horses.

Old horses or others who part with much flesh in winter should be fed so as to be in finest impossible for them to make up in the spring. Feed a little extra in spring months of at any season of the year when they are working hard. Oats rolls should have ground grain in order to prevent any unnecessary use of the jaws during such a period.

It is agreed by some that the cost of grinding will not make it profitable to feed ground oats to horses of work unless they have defective teeth. But where one is prepared to grind his own grain himself the work can be done at odd times when the cost of the grinding cost hardly enter into the question.

CATS OF THE FARM.

More Apt to Kill Chickens and Birds Than Rats.

More an incendiary fire, stank, soot and water has been shut for the crisis of three days, preparatory to the opening of the season.

It is safe to say that this September, when eighty-six of the members met protection of a house, destroys in the year 1906, it is to be hoped and confidence that all the entire not be repeated. A fire in a large house is not a whole loss of the building, but the damage done to the contents, even with the prompt and efficient work of the fire department, is usually very heavy. Many a household treasure is ruined by water or smoke, and many a business man is put to great inconvenience by the loss of his stock in trade.

The best way to avoid fire losses is to be careful. Be careful with matches, be careful with lamps, be careful with stoves and furnaces, be careful with electricity, be careful with gasoline, be careful with everything that may cause fire. Be careful, and you will not have to worry about insurance.

Mrs. Susanna Hoffman, of Baltimore street, is confined to her home by illness.

GETTYSBURG NOW

In a recent issue of this paper we published a statement that Gettysburg had no summer boarders during the month of August. This statement was made in error, as we have since learned that there were a number of visitors here during that month. We are glad to make this correction, as Gettysburg is fully entitled to all the summer boarders she can get.

Gettysburg is a delightful summer resort, and we have no doubt that the number of visitors here during the month of August will be greatly increased in the future. Gettysburg is situated in the midst of a beautiful section of country, and is surrounded by many historic points of interest, which alone should attract many visitors to this place. Besides the historic points of interest, Gettysburg has many natural attractions, which are not surpassed by any inland town in the State. Gettysburg is also a delightful place to spend the summer months, on account of its cool nights, which are always refreshing

PARAGRAPHS FROM CARLISLE TOWN AND COUNTY

Brief Notes Telling of Happenings in Gettysburg and Adams County; East Dublin Postmaster a Pigeon Fancier. Saxon to Close.

On log to new schools effective the New Year. Work will not get the last Sunday but he will spend his usual vacation at Woodstock on Saturday evening at eight o'clock. Mr. Bowman's church at p. m. and Bible talk at 7 o'clock.

The Seligman and Bruhm store will close on Saturday afternoon from now on for a week on account of the funeral of Miss Annie Jakes, who has been long in the employ of that firm.

Gettysburg people are certainly showing that they want good plays and are willing to patronize them. The attendance at the various performances at the Walker Theatre continues to be very good.

Absalom Gilt, aged over 80 years, formerly of Gitt's hill, near East Cutton, and who now resides at East Berlin, had an attack of vertigo, kept a flock of pigeons. Some years ago he started with six pairs of birds and now has about 600 with the

A KNIGHT FOR A DAY

The popular comedian, Frank Deshon, and a humorous company will be at the Walker Theatre on Friday, November 9th. This is B. C. Whitney's original production of the "musical gaiety" which ran for two years in Chicago and also had long runs in New York and other cities. One of the acts is held in America and then the action is transferred to London. Mr. Deshon in the role of "Jonathan Joy" undertakes to disentangle the very mixed conditions occurring as English girl's estate at Corsica.

AUTOISTS SPEND NIGHT HERE

New York to Atlanta Automobile Tour Stakes Gettysburg Place for All Night Stop. Cars in Square. Leave for South.

Forty-eight cars in the grand tour-to-a run from New York to Atlanta with their 192 occupants arrived in town between the hours of 5 and 6 Tuesday afternoon to spend the night here. They received enough gas to speed to town and the canteen and lunch baskets were soon busy replenishing their stay here. The start at 8 was delayed by the arrival of the cars and the most interesting feature so far as the local people were concerned was that the people were on hand to see the cars get away.

This far not a single mishap worth speaking of had marred the trip. The cars all came in in good condition and the tourists were clearly having a good time. Shortly after their arrival here trips were made over the battle field by many of the autoists in the meantime being the time to fill their tanks and gasoline tanks and to go over the various parts of their machines. Warren Gilbert and Harry Gilbert conducted over the field those who cared to take the trip.

The autoists spent the night at the Gettysburg and Harry Hess houses. An open air concert on the front porch of the latter house was a pleasing feature those who happened to be in that part of town.

The machines were "parked" in the Square for the night and were under police protection. This was done so that all the cars would be together, so to speak, in case of any accident. The contestants are not allowed to take their machines away from the overnight stop and all must remain in it.

"Ty" Cobb seemed the smount of interest that might be expected while Mrs. John Dorsey, the wife of a Gettysburg driver was also the subject for much comment on account of the press cars.

The contestants got out in regal order Wednesday and started for Frederick, where they had lunch. They went to Hagerstown and from there South.

The run is for three persons, to go out a distance of eighty miles North or South, to advertise the New York Herald and Atlanta Journal, and to test the reliability and stability of the drivers.

CLOSE—PORLONG

Joseph Roy Clouse, son of H. S. Clouse, of Littlestown, and Miss Mae Elizabeth Philips, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Houses Philips, of Baltimore, were married Tuesday, Oct. 29, at the Cathedral in Baltimore. The young couple will make their home in Irish town. The groom-to-be is an old fielder on the Portsmouth base ball team of the Virginia League, and a crack centre fielder of the Hanover Maroons two years ago.

MANY AT SUMMIT

The Blue Ridge mountain section is to have many cottages built there this winter than ever before. Last winter a number of city families spent the months there

The coming season the number will be larger. A number of persons who have resided at Buena Vista during the summer have removed to Blue Ridge summit for the winter.

I ELD DECEPTION

Cyrus LaMar Monson, Democratic candidate for Justice of the Supreme Court on Tuesday evening held an informal reception at the Eagle Hotel.

We have never shown such values, or so much a stock of Wool Blankets, as we now have. Look up that Blanket proche—a little our present stock is in good condition. G. W. Weaver and Son.

HALLOWE'EN TO BE ORDERLY

Burgess Holtzworth Issues Request for no Fiber Throwing. Personal Property must be Protected. Offenders to be Arrested.

So those throwing or rattlebones shall still be tolerated in Gettysburg on Hallowe'en night and no one who has been accused by Burgess Holtzworth likewise ammunition will be arrested but any persons discovered running away with vehicles carrying the "spoils" or any persons found destroying property will be quickly apprehended by the police who will have instructions to make prompt arrests.

The following notice was issued by Burgess:

"This Saturday evening being the time when the annual observance of Hallowe'en is to take place the following orders are issued for the comfort and protection of the citizens of the town. There shall be no flour thrown on the streets. Persons have suffered by many of the articles in the past through clothes being ruined in this way. The destruction of personal property will not be allowed and the police have instructions to arrest at once any one seen carrying away or otherwise removing same. Door steps gates, fences, or anything of like nature, likewise will not be allowed to interfered with."

Last year Burgess Holtzworth issued a proclamation forbidding the throwing of flour and it had a wholesome effect. Clothes had been ruined in other years by the senseless practice and it was not safe for any one to appear on the streets with good clothes on.

The season will be observed in Gettysburg in the usual manner. A number of social events have been planned and there will be no end of parties, dances and other forms of entertainment. The Lyceum Course will on Tuesday evening and Saturday night promises most lively times for the young people.

MARRIED

A Catholic ceremony will be held in St. Francis Xavier church next week beginning on Sunday evening when a mission will be opened. It is intended the members of the parish, encourage to greater efforts, those who have fallen away and to take up the laggards who are doing little or nothing and for which they were ordained into existence. The principal service will begin daily at 7 o'clock for which the two bells will ring at 6:30. Services every morning at 7 o'clock. The seats will be free, first come first served. The lectures and instructions will be useful for all, though intended for the church congregation. All are welcome.

The Pastor.

FIRST INSTITUTE

On Saturday, November 6 the first of a series of four general institutes will be held by the teachers of Adams County in Abbottstown. The series was determined upon at the Summer meeting of the teachers. Three will be held morning and afternoon sessions and they will be so arranged that the teachers can both go and return by train. The subjects for discussion will be "Pedagogy," "Arithmetic" and "Penning" leading "Dr. George W. Hull, of the Millersville State Normal School has been engaged to deliver two addresses. The teachers are requested to bring the Century Song Book to the meeting. It is attendance will be served with luncheon at noon by the citizens of Abbottstown.

IMPROVEMENTS

The recent successful season is responsible for numerous improvements that will be completed before the passing of the next season at Pen Mar. Allen Gimmel, who already owns several cottages, has begun the erection of another near the Edgewood hotel. The proprietor of the latter, George Lotz, has purchased ground and will soon work on a 14-room cottage in which he hopes to be able to care for the overflow from the Edgewood. It is rumored the Western Maryland railroad will erect a $6,000 station and double the size of the dancing pavilion.

THE SICK

The condition of Miss Carrie Vaughn who was taken to the Maryland General Hospital, Baltimore, for treatment several days ago remains very serious.

Harry Smith is rapidly recovering from an attack of Typhoid Fever at the same hospital.

Tanlor Mills Seminary Wool Fleece, knitted in 4 sheet Yarns ladies, at 85 cents per pound; 1 pound to 4 pound weight. Also Country Woolen Yarns, carded wool for manufacturing, at G. W. Weaver and Son.

BALL OF FIRE NEAR PEN MAR

Residents of the Mountain District Terrified by Strange Appearance and Alarming Noise. Fiery Have Seen Meteor.

A ball of fire whose like is not in the libber hundreds of residents of from the mountain a scared tale of a brightest luminary and neighbors last night whose appearance about 8:30 o'clock terrified many of the dwellers in the mountain section.

Mr. McCuine says he was awakened out of sleep by a terrible noise, as a great quantity of dynamite exploding.

The stars were shining at the time, and persons who happened to be on the mountain at the time say they saw what resembled a ball of brightest flash through the sky and strike some where in the vicinity of Pen Mar.

It looked, witnesses say, as though it started about five miles to the West of Pen Mar and came in a straight line toward them, a ball of fire, such as one sometimes sees during electrical storms.

The most plausible explanation is that it was a meteorite, glowing with white heat incident to the friction between it and the other through which it passed on its way to earth.

The concussion which awoke Mr. McCuine and his neighbors was probably caused by the meteorite striking the earth.

No one has yet found the place where it buried itself in the earth.

Ladies Onyx Hose, special Fall sale, made, 35 cents. G. W. Weaver and Son.

Politics! Advertising

VOTERS!

Your attention is respectfully called to the fact that at the coming election Associate Judge is to be elected for a term of at least five years.

This Society of Littlestown, and A. I. Waldner, of Arendtsville, are the only candidates for this position and appeal to stand firm against the granting of liquor licenses in the county.

The most effective place to protect against the Liquor Traffic is at the BALLOT BOX. Vote for these temperance men now on the ticket everywhere and come your way again for at least five years.

G. W. WEAVER & SON

Gettysburg, Pa.

The Very Newest Hosiery

Plenty of chance for selection in our new fall line of Hosiery, because every sort of well wearing stylish stockings are here. And you will find the prices are bottom every time.

Women's Stockings for evening wear, handsome color effects to match prevailing colors of gowns.

Our showing of Black Hosiery is particularly strong, including those of the famous Hermsdorf and Onyx Dye.

Ladies's Wool and Fleece Hose.

For the children we've every kind of sturdy Stockings—double knees, heels and toes.

Specials

Women's Pure Black Lisle Stockings, extra long, regular 25c value at 19 and 22 cents.

Ladies' Black Cashmere Hose, double sole, regular value best at 3 for $1.00.

Public Sale of Town Property

[illegible] the 29th day of November, 1910, at [illegible] o'clock, p. m., at the [illegible] Gettysburg, Pa., the following described property, to wit: [illegible] Lot No. 1 [illegible] Lot No. 2 [illegible] Lot No. 3 [illegible] Lot No. 4 [illegible] Lot No. 5 [illegible] Lot No. 6 [illegible] Lot No. 7 [illegible] Lot No. 8 [illegible] Lot No. 9 [illegible] Lot No. 10 [illegible] Lot No.